

PSY101 Assignment 1 Solution

Serial no.	Scenarios	Gestalt law (1)	Explanation (3)
01.	Ahmed thought that people who were talking to each other at the festival were groups of people.	Proximity	According to the law of proximity things that are close together seem more related things that are spaced feather apart. Principle of proximity states that

			When two or more elements are closed to each other, the position of the elements proximity the relationship between sperate part and render a specific meaning to that group.
02.	The wildlife photographer saw blue birds with sharp feathers and black birds with furry appearance. He labeled them as two separate groups of birds.	Similarly	The law of similarly state that similar things tends to appears grouped together. Grouping can occurs in both visual and auditory stimuli. Principle of similarly state that we tends to perceive things that physically resemble each other as a part of the same objects. There may be a similarity in any in of them, color, shape, texture or any other elements

3.	Sana saw some birds flying in a particular direction and she thought that they are a group and all going to their home nest together.	Good Continuation	The law of continuation hold that points that are connected by straight or curving lines are seem in a way that follows the smoothest path. In other words, elements in align or curve seem more related to one another than those positioned randomly. The principle of continuity states that whenever our eyes beings to follows something, they will continue to travel in that direction until they encounter another object. The eyes create momentum as they are compelled to more through one object and continue to another.
----	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

04.	Amna was solving her geometry paper. She saw some lines that were disconnected. She was surprised to see that when she connected those lines, a circle or triangle would be formed.	Closure	continue to another. According to the law of closure we precise elements as belonging to the same groups. If they seem to complete some unity, one brain often ignore contradictory information and fill in gap in information. Closure occur when when an elements in incomplete or is not enclosed in spare . it subconsciously involves fillings of the missing gaps
-----	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

			or in information when enough of the space in shown and it is still incomplete, our minds tends to fill in the blanks and construct the whole of the shape, let's see the relevant example of the closure principle
05.	Salman viewed the clouds and main figures as he observed them along with the sky.	Figure and Ground	The human eye can differentiate an object from the surrounding. We perceive certain objects as being. In the for ground and other object as being in the background

Please Don't Copy Paste